Purpose

The District Council of Robe is committed to a policy of equal employment opportunity, fair treatment and non-discrimination for all existing and future employees.

Council therefore acknowledges its legal obligations under the Local Government Act and the State and Federal Equal Opportunity laws, in that

- The South Australian Equal Opportunity Act makes discrimination unlawful on the grounds of sex, sexuality, marital status, pregnancy, race, physical or intellectual impairment and age in the areas of employment, provision of goods and services, advertising, accommodation and clubs and associations.

Sexual harassment and victimisation are also unlawful.

- The Local Government Act requires that Council observe general principles of personnel management and develop, implement and review an Equal Employment Opportunity Program.

When developing and implementing the Equal Employment Opportunity Program the District Council of Robe will:

- Incorporate the program into the Corporate Plan.
- Consult the Council's EEO officer/EEO consultative committee/extended workplace group/employees/workplace representatives (whichever applies).
- Identify the target groups (usually women, Aboriginals, people from non-English speaking backgrounds, people with physical and intellectual impairments, young people and older people) and implement processes, measures and schemes to redress past disadvantages.
- Ensure that recruitment, selection, promotion, transfer and training are based solely on the merit principle. This means be based on skills, knowledge, qualifications, and experience (including community experience) relevant to the job or situation.
- Appoint an officer to the position of EEO officer.
- Establish a sexual harassment policy.

- Review existing training programs and change or develop them as necessary.
- When providing services to residents ensure that they will be delivered in a fair and equitable manner.
- Provide all new and existing employees and elected members with EEO awareness training and any other thing relevant to their position or responsibilities.
- Ensure that all employees and elected members receive copies of the Equal Employment Opportunity and Sexual Harassment policies and have access all the times to information relating to the development and implementation of the Equal Employment Opportunity Program.

The overall responsibility for monitoring the effectiveness of this policy and for implementing an ongoing Equal Employment Opportunity Program is vested in the Chief Executive Officer.

All employees have a responsibility to uphold the Equal Employment principles outlined in the policy. However, specific responsibility rests with line managers and supervisors to prevent discrimination and promote Equal Employment Opportunity within the workplace.

Employees are encouraged to raise equal opportunity issues or grievances with the Equal Employment Opportunity Officer. Confidentiality will be respected. It should also be noted that it is the right of every South Australian to seek advice or assistance for the Equal Opportunity Commission.

Council believes that the implementation of an Equal Employment Opportunity Policy and Program will result in a more productive workplace, increase job satisfaction and increase the quality of services to the community.

Rights

All employees have the right :

- (a) To have the opportunity to be selected for promotion on merit;
- (b) To choose an individual career path;
- (c) Of access to all appropriate benefits and conditions;
- (d) To be free of harassment in the workplace;
- (e) To seek advice from, or complain to, the Equal Opportunity Commission.
