Robe Institute

Location

The Institute which is bounded by Mundy Terrace, Smillie Street and Bagot Street (see attached map) is a historic building which was renovated in 2007. With funding from the SA Government, the Robe CWA fund, contributions from local residents and volunteer workers from the 'Friends of the Institute', the building is now an ideal venue for your next function, whether it is a business seminar, market or wedding. The Institute was built during 1868 and during Robe's heyday, the Institute building was the heart and soul of the community, with its ballroom floor and stage and a library containing some 2,000 volumes. With its prime position in the centre of town, looking out over the lawns of the village green toward the waters of Guichen Bay, the Institute is truly unique.

The entrance doors to the Institute are located on Smillie Street, with back doors that open out to a grassed area facing the foreshore.

A short walk will take you to the picturesque Town beach and a variety of dining including restaurants, cafes and bakery. Robe also provides accommodation to suit any budget including hotels, motels, caravan parks, backpacker hostel, bed and breakfast accommodation and holiday rentals. The Visitor Information Centre and Library is located within the building facing Mundy Terrace (sea side).

The Robe Institute can be booked for any private function including weddings, special event dinners and performances.
