

Mayor's Report

NBN Rollout

Council has been informed that the NBN rollout is scheduled to commence in Robe in July.

Information has come to hand spelling out the system specifications available along with a town map indicating where the Fibre To The Node would be deployed. The remainder of the district will only have the option of the Skymuster Satellite service.

The Skymuster option has limitations with no future capability increase and comes at a premium cost. This will see approximately 300 plus Robe community members being treated as second-class citizens.

Normally Council adopts the apolitical position on such matters; however in this case there is a clear difference in the intended system capabilities being offered by the two major political parties. Obviously the Liberal position is one of proposed cost related to population density, whereas the Labor Party is committed to a far more superior system but it comes at a higher cost.

For regional Australia, and in particular, the Robe community, there is a cost in not having access to what is now, in global terms, basic infrastructure, that is also critical to business development and growth. There are part time residents who have been waiting for high speed broadband that will enable them to live and operate from Robe full time. There are residents who could work from home if provided with the appropriate technology.

There are already claims the system proposed is sub standard compared to that being rolled out in developing nations.

If regional communities are to have the opportunity to develop and contribute to our nations prosperity there has to be government commitment to the enabling infrastructure.

Seeking a more Robust Model for Community Engagement

I am seeking expressions of interest for a proposed Mayor's Working Party for community engagement.

In the first instance please email, telephone or make contact to inform me of your interest. The working party would consider all ideas put forward by interested parties for further consideration.

Development of online tools and youth engagement along with assessment of what other communities are doing will all be part of the brief.

This is a great opportunity to attempt to develop a more comprehensive and inclusive way of undertaking community engagement. If you are interested or feel you have something to contribute please contact me to add your name to the start up list.

Science Technology Engineering Mathematics (STEM)

The STEM conference recently was held in Mount Gambier and attended by 600 plus teachers and educators. Part of the program included a presentation by well-known demographer, Futurist Bernard Salt. Among the slides presented were statistics regionally, nationally and globally indicating population trends with declines evident in rural areas and increases to the Cities.

While growth in agricultural productivity was evident, the jobs in regional areas were in decline. Larger properties and increased mechanisation being the contributing factor to the productivity gains.

Population trend is ageing with the many baby boomers heading for retirement.

Thereby lays one of the future drivers for Robe's future prosperity and jobs. Robe has many of the desirable attributes for attracting the retiring baby boomer demographic.

The Robe community needs to seriously revisit and discuss the development of retirement living and the associated healthcare jobs that are associated with the provision of the related services.

The other stand out is the conference market. Robe has everything to offer except a purpose built venue. There is a vital need within the South East for a 150 to 200 seat facility.

With the average conference delegate contributing $237 per day (source Aust Tourism & Transport Forum) this is potentially a big economic driver.

CCOWS Report

If you are a resident of Robe, then I know you will understand this. Sometimes our distance from cities and offices, leaves us feeling left out and disenchanted with the lack of accessibility to services that we feel would help with our wellbeing. And yet at other times we are grateful to be away from the crowds, business and stress that we are aware of in heavily populated areas. At the moment in CCOWS we are anxiously waiting to see the result of the Australian Government election. There have been many changes forecast for children's services. And as we all know the promises made at this time will not translate into reality unless the funds can be found to support them. So services like ours in a regional area are struggling to meet rising costs for operations (vehicles, freight for resources, resources themselves, property leases, consumables), the hundred and one things which are needed to bring a quality experience to the children in our care. And that's what is important to us, the children and their wellbeing. Children in rural and regional areas have the right to early education and care which will set them on the right path to becoming positive, contributing citizens. Where children live should make no difference to meeting that right. CCOWS looks to the Government of the future, to recognise the assistance we need to provide care and education for children in the early years. This affects the children, their families and their community. We are reading the policies.

Robyn and the CCOWS Team.

Chief Executive's Report

Beach Access Strategy

At the time of writing this article, Council has not received or considered the report from the Coast Protection Board and the landscape architect in relation to Councils Draft Beach Access Strategy.

Robe Jetty repairs

The Department of Planning Transport and Infrastructure have provided advice to Council that the Robe Jetty has adequate structural integrity to allow the jetty to remain open to pedestrian traffic. Staff of the Department will be contacting Council in the near future to discuss assistance regarding the necessary repairs to the jetty.

Informal Meetings

In response to recent comments in the local media relating to Council holding monthly information meetings I am able to provide the following information.

Council hold Elected Member Forums as required in accordance with section 90 (8) of the Local Government Act and Councils Policy 2.29 Procedure for Informal Meetings of Elected Members. An extract from Councils policy outlines the purpose and procedure for the conduct of these meetings

"This meeting is an informal meeting of Council members and staff held pursuant to Section 90 subsection (8) of the Local Government Act 1999 for the purpose of:

Informing the elected body of matters that may be presented to Council for consideration at upcoming Council meetings.

Receiving presentations by third parties, consultants or staff on matters relevant to Council.

Providing a forum for elected members to raise matters with staff that require research prior to presentation to future Council meetings.

The Public, unless specifically invited to attend, is excluded from these meetings.

Council cannot formally debate any matters under consideration at this meeting. The formal debate on the issues or subjects considered at this meeting must be undertaken at the formal monthly Council meeting.

Council cannot make any decisions on matters under consideration at this meeting as formal Council/Committee meetings are the only forums at which Council decisions can be made."

Red Meat Cluster

The Limestone Coast Local Government Region has been working hard with livestock producers to look at ways of improving the viability of red meat production within the region. The project, overseen by an industry steering committee is developing a better understanding of the industry in order to grow the profitability of the agricultural sector. Livestock producers are encouraged to become involved in this cluster and information can be obtained from the following website www.limestonecoastredmeat.com.au

Regional Profile

Limestone Coast Regional Development Australia has produced a regional profile which pulls together statistics from a whole range of industries and sectors within the region to ensure that the region has an up to date community and economic profile. This information can be accessed by anyone who requires it and will be a useful tool for business wishing to better understand their clientele and for those who may be considering an expansion of their business. The data can be accessed from the following websites;

<http://economy.id.com.au/rda-limestone-coast>

<http://profile.id.com.au/rda-limestone-coast>

Obelisk Maintenance

For some time, Council has been grappling with the difficult issue of how to undertake maintenance of the Obelisk, involving painting the external structure. Unfortunately Council is unable to undertake this work as the condition of the access to the site and the surrounds of the structure cannot be made into a safe work site for either council staff volunteers or contractors. Council has the responsibility not to put people undertaking work on its behalf in situations which are unsafe and could cause them injury or worse.

Planning Reform Legislation

The legislation has been passed by the South Australian Parliament which will result in significant changes to planning and development, the most significant changes proposed since the late 1970's when state-wide planning controls were first introduced.

Attached with the agenda papers is a comprehensive letter from the SA Government detailing the changes. A copy of this correspondence has also been forwarded to the Development Assessment Panel. These changes will be implemented over a period of time and the advice received is that it will take five years before all the changes come into force.

The legislation which will define the extent of the changes will be by way of regulations, codes and guidelines which have yet to be developed and therefore there are many questions to which there are no answers to date.

These changes will be introduced slowly and with consultation with the Local Government Association and Councils. Until these changes are introduced, Council will continue to provide planning services as they are provided at the moment.

Without knowing all the detail some of the changes are;

- ▶ That the region will be investigating the establishment of a region or subregion planning assessment panel/s
- ▶ There are to be state-wide planning rules, codes and guidelines which will have the ability to be modified to suit local areas, however this will mean that it would be unnecessary for Council to undertake further Development Plan Amendments (DPA) as the Development Plan will be superseded. Councils Current DPA will be processed under the current legislation.
- ▶ The new assessment panels will have up to one elected member per panel, there is discussion that in fact some Councils may elect not to have a member on the panel
- ▶ The assessment panel will comprise of up to five members instead of the 7 members currently in place.
- ▶ All panel members must be have qualifications or experience in planning related matters.
- ▶ A State Planning Commission will be established which will be the peak body for planning in the state and will have the responsibility of introducing the new legislation, plans codes and guidelines which will replace the existing Development Plans.
- ▶ There will be no more ability to establish car parking funds, and
- ▶ Changes are proposed that will impact upon existing and future heritage conservation zones.

NBN rollout

Attached with the agenda papers is the final documentation providing specific information in relation to the extent of the Servicing Area Module (SAM) and confirming the proposed locations for the Fibre to the Node (FTTN) cabinets within the Robe Township.

Council staff have been in negotiation with the staff of NBN regarding the location of the FTTN cabinets and have been successful in relocating the cabinet within the heritage area of the town to a more suitable location. Adjoining property owners (residents) will be notified by way of a letter and directed to NBN call centre for further information.

WANTED - used postage stamps

Margie Thomas from the Robe Lions Club is collecting used postage stamps for the Lions Australia Stamp Club. Each year, the Stamp Club trades both Nationally and Internationally with fellow Lions members. ALL profits from their trading, generally about $6,000 to $7,000, is then donated to the Australian Lions Mobility Fund who use the money to purchase mobility walkers. These machines enable severely physically handicapped children to walk and be mobile, often for the first time and each unit can cost several thousand dollars each.

If you are able to help, please drop the stamps off to either the Post Office or our new Lions shop 'Second Chance'. Alternatively, ring Margie on 0418806775.
